EMOCRATIC REPUBLICAL

FOR GOVERNOR, ALEXANDER G. MCNUTT. FOR REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS GEN. A. G. BROWN, of Copiah, JACOB THOMPSON, of Pontotoc. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE, THOMAS B. WOODWARD. LOR STATE TREASURER, SAMUEL CRAIG. FOR AUDITUR OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS, AUGUSTUS B. SAUNDERS.

For Senator of Yazoo County. DR. HIRAM J. THOMAS. For Representatives. 2. S. DULIN, ESQ. DR. PATRICK KELLY

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

at the next November election.

We are authorized to announce VINCENT GALLAWAY, as candidate for Sheriff at the next November election.

We are anthorized to aunounce JAMES W. EXUM, as candidate for Sheriff, at the next November election.

We are authorized to announce Walter R. Hickey, Esq. as a candidate for State Treasurer, at the next Novemger election. We are authorized to auuounce ANDER office of Chancellor of the State, at the next November election. We are authorized to announce Dr. B Y NDELL, as a candidate for Representative, at the next November election. We are authorized to announce Q. D.

GIBBS, as candidate for Probate Judge, at We are authorized to announce JAMES H. VANCE, as a candidate for Assessor and trial at no distant day. The first great and of the Peace, at the next November election.

Collector of Yazoo County. Judge, at the next November election.

We begin the publication of a series of po. litical papers, with this number, over the signature of "A Jeffersonian." The present communication is merely intended as preparatory to the subject proposed for discussion -we know the author, and from a knowledge of his abilities and familiar acquaintance with the political history of his country, do recommend his papers to the serious consideration of his fellow-citizens .- Well aware that they will contain a mass of the most profitable doubtful and illegal of all institutionsreading, and give that elucidation on the Every measure has its origin and value in a great elementary principles of constitutional bank. Truly, the putity of our patriotism The poet answers nothing .law and liberty, his subject necessarily in. has lost all those inherent virtues the spirit "A rose by any other name would smill as sweet." we are constrained to acknowledge has dis. Reporter. volves. Let no democrat omit their perusal.

We were much pleased to receive the first number of the ABERDEEN WHIG, as edited by our very esteemed friend, and recent fellow citizen. Doctor Wm. P. Rogers. The present correct idea of the general government to is pleasing and that of philosophy is true: fidence in his honesty of intention, rendeted back, fevered, "cabined, cribbed, confined," number gives every indication of that rofined the benefit of some few favored persons; and taste and high order of intellect we know the at the mortification and disregard of Doctor to be gifted with; and would judge whole community, its interest, honor and mothat from the extent and variety of his ac. rality; have labored since the commencement quirements, the labors he has undertaken of our constitutional compact to disorganize will be a pleasure to him and a profit to his and porvert the ends of government-a gov readers. We tender him our sincerest grat. ernment established on natural rights, oniniulations, and hope he may realize all those ons, and of limited powers into one of arbri

Much is said and talked of the currency of the country! It has become the all-inviting topic of the federal prints corporate in stitutions and congressional privileges are claimed in order to restore it to that pristing purity the standard and value of money. once commanded in their estimation. Nothing naw-a-days can be legislated upon-no office selected, but what must turn on this question and strange as it may seem a Unit. public, institutions and measures totally reits legality and are severely vexed to determine what clause of our federative compact would not help and administer to-it is the panacca of all political disease-and its ad- vas vocates (mirabile dictur) are the apostolic allowoften lamented the ultra fanaticism of men, neither the constitution sanctions and the love of country denounces.

object, and that the little benefit arising from ly denied unauthorized by it. laws and liberties.

THE SOUTH AND HER PRINCIPLES. We believe there never was a crisis when We are authorized to announce CHARLES the South and her principles required more E. MOUNT, as candidate for Probate Judge earnest and faithful advocates in congress, than at the approaching se sion. These who tegrity of our motives-who reproach us with feelings the most hostile and censure our every movement, are an active and well organized band, powerful in numbers and still more so in resources, and to be dreaded with try grouns. all the terror of open hostility. We have great and important questions of federal policy to settle .- The keeping and purity of SON HUTCHINSON, as a candidate for the the constitution itself is placed in our hands, and the action of cogress under our sanction and influence, will determine many momentous questions that have agitated this government for years. The fequent discussions on the subjects we allude to, must necessurily come to a termination shortly, and a little perception into t'e state of public feeling desire of ruling over its estinies. But Lord and affairs, would induce us to imagine their deliver us from such an a ministration-it leading question is, whether the federal gov-We are authorized to announce WILLIAM ernment shall be made the creature of a mo. For the State Rights and Democratic Union DILLAHUNTY, as a candidate for Probate nied aristocracy or continue as our illustrious forefathers intended it, the guardian and pro-We are authorized to announce ALEX. tector of the people at large. How different R.F. COLE, as a candidate for Justice are the motives that actuate the opponent party; after hunting over the constitution for circulation of the paper to which I im indebtyears, quoting all the sophistry of interested partizans, and boasting the incomparable expediency of a national bank, predicated on the advisement and authority of noble and reflect upon the diffusibility of truth, in a delight to honor, they are constrained to turn the press," is protected by the constitution every question of policy on this backneved theme and to loose sight of those original measures of constitutional law which unite believing that they will be read and apprecius as a nation, in the consideration of a most ated by some, and substantianly, if not in of freedom imparts, if we allow this mercena. ry spirit to take such possession of us much onger. The opposition ever aiming at powers expectations his success ought to command. trary and absolute authority. Their idea of of Benjamin; and a sacrifice to the proscrip- of this bank, backed by the credit of a great long communication to Mr. Van Buren, in special convention has either left this coult principle or policy of constitutional right he people,) and by insidiously contriving to grades, to escape detection and punishment, The failure of the bank to locate her of the thick multitudes of the great city. But erty at present to communicate. But I think to locate her of the thick multitudes of the great city. But erty at present to communicate.

even those who favor its recussitation doubt ation of democratic principles, than the most broken down and defeated political aspi- bank managers and their friends, in extenuadetested nauroation of tyranny. sanctions such an institution. They brag and the more are we astonished at the will, wish boast of its capabilities in such unmeasured and blind enthusiasm of men, devoted to to the prejudices, magnifying the injuries, must succumb. times of applause as to disgust the reason of American principles and attached to the flattering the hopes of the disappointed and The wide spread ruin and dis ress which aristocratic politeness. The teception total every sensible man-they ascribe to it every constitution of their country, as we believe merce, and agriculture. There is nothing the political and banking powers of the in the whole range of monetary affairs it countries an alliance the most unholy, and to their defeat. All this is but a hint of and impolitic, and calculated to harrass the ed the credit of it for three days—it was a hat men devoted to constitu. the first approach towards that worst of all the foundation of this governments, a moneted aristocracy/ and sent day. A name which embedies the as the representation of democracy, and the style of the Express, to of its escushion tarnished, men who con. To give a particular set of men the right tend for the most, for limited and restricted and privilege to issue their simple promis- as a majority of our people deserve to wear it powers of government-who denounce the sary note, receivable as money, and by the by acting in accordance with its import. If most plausible actions of congress, if in op- influence of government made a fixed standposition to the ideas of their political leaders, and of value, is not only despotic and odious who set themselves up as the keepers and to a people, but absolutely places the labor hear your country's history respond from ear. Mississippi. His legal acquirements, his party the title of day conservatives of the constitution-who allow and the institutions of the state at the mercy themselves alone to be called the patriots of of a political faction—thristing for office, the land-and assume all the virtue of our without a principle to loose, or a feeling to revolutionary fathers, should so far forget the compromise for the purity and salvation of principles of their party (which is nothing their country's constitution and laws. Much but a bungle of prejudice) as to contend for is preached in the federal prints about the things the very spi it of our government derangement of the currency; and the inconabhors. Let such men contemplate this sub- venience thereby necessarily sustained—this ject maturely divest themselves of that cus fact no one will contradict - but we should tomary hostility to republican policy, convince ascertain the cause of the disease before themselves that day are citizens living under we apply the remedy—and understand those to promote success; but, one under which pride and ornament of the bar in East Ten- is to be made on comme a republic of enumerated powers; that liberty elementary points of our constitution before and the purity of government is our aim and we adopt means of relief and succor evident-

000 of freemen for the violation of their it is because the constitutional currency has been, by a course of mis-government, banished from circulation. For how can the representative remain when the substantive value is gone? Had the Congress of the U. States never violated the constitution by treating bank notes as money; had it never leagued itself with the banking power-had it never from a writer who signed himself " Demo- rest, he is one of the noblest works of God- About the same time, by a war against our interests, and assail the in- bartered its might and credit to soulless cor- crat," Acting on principle that we think an honest man! - Free Trader. porations-we had never felt those disasterous should govern the conductor of every public effects caused by the suspension of specie journal, we shall never hesitate to publish payment and that long train of pecuniary embarrassments under which the entire coun ciation of paper money-the derangement of the currency and the thousand evils which have fallen on the times may all be traced back to the political ambition of a few aspi rants who would climb the ladder of state. even to the upmost round without one visi tation of conscience, if they could and would promise every violence and infraction of the would be the farewell dirge of law and liberty.

TO THE PEOPLE OF Y ZOO COUN Y.

NO. 1. "Come and let us reason together." Fellow-citizens .- When I consider the ed for the publication of the numbers I propose addressing you for your calm tireside consideration, I can scarce hope that I will meet with a general hearing .- Yet when I country where the "freedom of speech and of and cherished in the intercourse of freemen, am encouraged to east these numbers before you, as "bread upon the waters," hoping and fact, be considered by all.

How often has the interogation been written, read, said and sung, "What is a name?"

or political compact is so closely tion of party zeal and prejudice. But all State, are now 25 per cent. discount in all which he discusses with a sort of bludgeon try, or will speedily be sent to America in this falls short of telling the good or evil of the adjoining State, is enough of itself to sat- and bluster rhetoric, the causes of the meagre arranging the basis of a settlement of the disfriend, the orphan's legacy, and the widow's partiality exercised by the board, by which of all the Republican and about nine tenths Her Majesy's advocate, Sir John Dodson and about nine tenths | Her Majesy's advocate, Sir John Dodson and about nine tenths | support. A had name is the demon of de- more than three-fourths of the people of this of the whig papers are to be trusted, it would has for some time been engaged in drawing the state of the state of the whigh like their shadows have follows. spair, which, like their shadows have follow. State have been deprived of any participation have seemed much more natural and perti- up this convention, which I am told, is it ed murderers and villians, until it brought in the loans made by it, is of itself a suffi- nent for the opponents of the President, to strict conformity with the instructions sent them to suffer their inst demerits. And a circumstant them to suffer their inst demerits. changed name has enabled criminals of all against it. agitated—no candidate for the most trivail magnify the sphere of federal nower, at the and refugees from justice to live secure in branches, and the tardy action of the hank in it is the way of the party—they only excel the knotty point is in a fair train of arrange same time striving to implant within the re- remote places from the scenes of their crimes. relation to individual stockholders, has dis- in investigating the probable causes of ficti- ment. A changed name has enabled a broken firm heartened hundreds, who spent much time tious consequences. to go anew into business upon their old cap- and money in arranging their title papers, and When the visit of the President was in JEFFERSON.—We were very much surprised their creditors out of their who have now withdrawn them. ed States Bank has become the great distin. pringent to the rower and spirit of the conital, and swindle their creditors out of their who have now withdrawn them. Many, and prospect, the Whig press was quite unantto see during a late visit of the grave of Mr.

Stitution, have done more to retard the emenited dose. A Changed name has enabled plansible reasons have been regimed by the disaffected, without a change of principle, threatened our country; induced hundreds, ed out to be quite an unparalleled showforce, and greater hopes of success than prior to this institution last winter, as premature the welcome of La Fayerrs. Whigs claimestine wars. They will not name." Then let no one ask with a sneer, location of the branches.

the foundation of this government, to the pre- the man, with a great deal of reluctance, yet secure a party triump, written constitutions, and is in itself the shall support him. parter of constitutional liberty, so long evolutionary soldier, whose hoary head is principle,—all combine to render him wor- his principles! He told the bleached with the frost of many winters, his thy of the bench in the Courts of Chancery- the Independent Treasury won feeble voice echoes the name Democrat!! Mr. Hutchinson studied his profession and law of the land, and actually And millions of energetic young freemen are entered upon its arduous duties, surrounded gratulate the country on now proud to confess that they also are demo- by the ablest lawvers of Tennessee and Ala. declaration produced a perfect will be has come in diamery and according to the prosper state he has come in diamery and according to the prosper state he has come in diamery and according to the prosper state he has come in diamery and according to the prosper state he has come in diamery and according to the prosper state he has come in diamery and according to the prosper state he has come in diamery and according to the prosper state he has come in the prosper st crats.—The name borne by the Democratic bama. In the former state he has come in dismay, and astonishment party, is old, Honorable, good and true. No collision with such men as Grundy, Flet. pack. Van Buren has dee shuffling for deception, no new assumption cher, Fogg, and others who have been the Treasury! He is a hard they and their fathers have lived and done nessee, and North Alabama.—Since his re- to be exterminated—banks in well; and one which whether they sink or sidence in this State, at Raymond in Hinds and sifted for what gold then I wim, live or die, survive or perish, they will county, he has commanded universel con- specie of the country to be never disavow, desert or disgrace. Democra- fidence for his urbanity to all-his faithful- people, and hoarded up in such a bank can never compensate 18,000,. If the paper currency has been deranged cy, when I desert thee, "let my right hand ness to his clients - his duty to society and President to sit like a grim forget her cunning and my dearest friends morals at large. forsake me in the hour of my necessity!"

A JEFFERSONIAN: From the Lexington Union. A. G. McNUTT-THE UNION

BANK.

well written and temperate aricles, let them dvocate what political doctrines they may. With the opinions advanced by "Democrat," we have nothing to do. We only asserted The multiplication of Banks-the depre. that he was a democrat, and expressed the opinion that if such a state of things existed as he represented, that it would be well for the leaders of our party to endeavor to head such divisions. We now take occasion to say again that the author has always been ranked as a democrat, and a distinguished one, and has, not long since, run as a regular nominee of the party for a high and important office. Nor is he a bank director, bank attorney, agent, or commission merchant. If to State we hear of the most encouraging pros. nent barracks are to be built at La Pro constitution of this republic for the mere doubt the propriety of running Gov. McNutt pects for the success of the democratic cause with stone towers to defend them; many on the Democratic ticket, on the ground of at the approaching election. Our friends are to be built at Moutreal; Fort W his personal unpopularity and unfitness, and are properly aroused; the right spirit is per- at Prescett, is to be completed: Fu his inability to unite the vote and influence vading the rank and file. Bank reform is Island is to be fortified, and Government of the whole party, constitute such a crime the watchword, and the powerful democracy; purchased several perces of land in reas to justly entitle "Democrat" to the denun the friends of equal rights and equal privi- parts of the suburbs of Kingston, with an ciation he has received from a tew overhear. leges: the unterrified freemen of the com- of commencing public works for its de ing and intemperate politicians, then indeed monwealth, are rallying to the rescue, with on a large scale. As these prea great many of our party are greatly in error. an ardor and zeal worthy their noble heri. not be for the purpose of quelling insurred As our course upon the subject has apparent. tage. Every where the republicans are wide or resisting sympathetic invasions by Am ly given our friends some concern, we avail awake, animated with a sure and certain can pirates, it necessarily follows that a ourselves of the present occasion to express prospect of victory. We shall carry almost on a great scale, with the United States our views, both in relation to Gov. McNutt every county east of Pearl river, from Lown. expected by our Government. There is and the Union Bank. Opposed as we are to des and Hancock. In the Chickasaw coun- other power on earth who could attend a national bank, in any shape or form, upon ties, all is safe, and our majority will be tre- invade the Canadas; and it appeals critically the ground that it is inexpedient, as well as mendous. In the midland and river coun. that the Whig ministry, however much the unconstitutional; and at the same time the ties, we shall gain immensely from the last procrastinate and conciliate, are determine advocate of a well regulated and convertible test vote. Even in old Adams, the seat of at all hazards, to maintain the integrity of the Mississippi Union Bank as an institution, which, if properly conducted, would afford us a safe circulating medium, and destined dison and Claiborne, the republican candito confer instimable blessings upon the State. We must confess that we have been greatly disappointed in our anticipations This great Lawrence, Franklin, Marion, &c. every sign State institution which we flattered ourselves would restore the lost credit of our country, regulate exchanges, and stand pre-eminent among the banking institutions of the South, good cause, we must succeed .- Southern The philosopher answers that it is "the gusted and disappointed many of its warmest written or spoken sign of an idea. The friends and advocates. We have forborne to word in language written or spoken, by which say any thing upon this subject. The high thing is designated, as a man, a horse, a character and talents of the distinguished of Indicrous contortions: With an Etna of tree, a mountain,"-The response of poetry gentleman who presides over it, and our con- terrible responsibilities burning upon their but, the ambitious demagogue has often us deaf to the oft-reiterated charges made they shift dolorously from side to side, defound "a name" a convenient substitute for against the managers and course of the insti- voured with the "pain ever, forever" of strug- least-and it is a comfort to know that merit, as a stepping stone to preferment, a sub- tution. As a State institution, and one in gling for office which they seem destined stitute for the light of truth and principle, by which the humblest as the most wealthy cit- never to reach. It may be worth while to which to lead the multitude, when blinded izens are alike interested, the citizens should inquire why a party that has so very many Whig ministry may become more pacificby ignorance or partizan zeal, to advance his reflect coolly and dispassionately, and not brilliant prospects always is distanced at 'ast, projects of ambition or self-aggrandizement, precipitately condemn, without the most in- and it would not be strange if the secret and the Shiboleth of the predominant tribe, disputable evidence. Although we make no should be found to lie in their utter want of extract from a London letter in the Quebe the failure to pronounce which marks the pretensions to extraordinary knowledge upon political sincerity. A writer in the last Sun- Gazette, dated June 12: man for the slaughter by the fratricidal sword financial subjects, but the fact that the issues day Morning News, addresses an immense "I think you may take it as certain, that a name. A good name has been the defence isfy anv man of the utter incompetency of the and chilling reception of the President in putes with the government of the United of the unfortunate innocent, the poor man's present managers. The gross favoritism and the city of New York. If the descriptions States, relative to the boundary question. them to suffer their just demerits. And a cient reason to enlist the honest of all parties inquire why it was that he was received with the American minister at our Court.

overnment to perform for itself "What is a name?" But let the serious in. The reckless and ruinous policy she has cession to the representative of the Federal saints of the country. Indeed the slang and what they contend are pertainable to its legi. quiry rather be, is the name a good or a bad since pursued, is opening the eyes of both Union. They are now speculating with rueone? Is it an assumed name to protect whigs and democrats, and without a change ful faces on the causes of the miserable and stuff of othered in the autogonist papers respect. It imate functions; but strive to transfer this infamy and fraud, a new name to protect old of policy, there will be such a storm raised in meagre turn out to welcome the President! ing this thing of a national bank, is so un. (claimed) power to private individuals or capital from the demand of honest creditors, the political elements, as will crush the instibecoming of freemen, so devoid of mason, corporations and thereby authorize them, in or a changed name to rally an old party and tution with all the food beauty and the food bea becoming of freemen, so devoid of ason, corporations and thereby authorize them, in or a changed name to rally an old party and tution with all the fond hopes of its advocates in time to find out the reason why rivers and so very doubtful at last, that we have direct violation of all law-with the high inveigle new recruits?. In the vocabulary of to atoms. We shall support A. G. McNutt generally run up bill! privilege and commanding authority of creat. party politics there is a good name, an hon for the office of Governor; and we have no This is not the only characteristic absur nality. The thing manifests in every view sire to son in a direct and unbroken line, since prefer, and we know many men who vote for political tour, that its sole purpose was to a cucumber.

ANDERSON HUTCHINSON

THE OFFICE OF CHANCELLOR. This gen- VAN BUREN ad ting in accordance with its import. It the tileman, a prominent candidate for the office friends in Castle Garden as consistent of the highest fellow-citizeness name to which I refer, ask who was the fra- of Chancellor, is deserving of the highest fellow-citizens!" mer of the declaration of independence? and judicial honors in the gift of the State of papers have vehement iest records, Thomas Jefferson, the repub li- habits and taste, the soundness of his judg- about the name in can the democrat, the patriot of those immor- ment, the dispassionate tene of his feelings, cognomina posses tal men that lived in the times the fried the dignity of his appearance and manner, family." But the President men's souls. Hear the response of the as well as his uncompromising rectitude of address himself to his friend

We are not of those who believe that poli- foamed from the lips of the tical opinions should make or mar the for- with as much freshness and w tunes of any gentleman springing to the they had not been uttering the state bench-yet if any of our remote readers two years-as if it was a new th should feel any interest in knowing, we can VAN BUREN to declare for the San assure them from personal acquaintance, that |-as if the Whigs had not already Some of our editorial brethren have taken Mr. Hutchinson is a Jeffersonian Democrat, ed all the superlatives of folly and followed the superlatives of folly and followed the superlatives of folly and followed the superlatives of the superla us to task for publishing a communication of the State Rights school; but above the in their comments on that great

> The Whig Central Committee at Jackson dead -given up-that the President have nominated GIDEON FITZ, of Hinds coun- feetly satisfied with the present space. ty, for State Treasurer, and John CRUSOE, of that, therefore, South Carolina was bone Lowndes county, for Auditor of Public Accounts, on the Whig ticket, to fill the vacan- suppose that the Whigs themselves to believe the believ cies occasioned by the deaths of Dr. Brown time to believe a portion of the fabrical and Col. Dixon. Mr. Fitz, may possibly they impose on the community! make a tolerable fair race, but we think it will require Mr. Crusoe to be very nimble on the heels, with all the aid of his far-famed namesake Robinson, and his goat skins, to come within a forty foot pole of the "Old Soldier." - Southern Reporter.

THE CANVASS .- From all parts of the aper currency; we have looked forward to ancient federalism and modern whigism, we empire. It is a wise maxim to be pr have strong hopes of electing a republican for war while at peace, and as the American candidate. In Carroll, Holmes, Yazoo, Ma Government has hitherto succeeded but dates are in the field, and will contest every bullying, John Bull is beginning to rub inch of ground. In the southeast, Copiah, is cheering. In almost every county, the democratic party are the strongest men. This is right. With popular candidates and

From the Charleston Mercury. The Whig press is at this time in an agony such enthusiasm, such a perfect outpouring The other mentioned facts I am not at library guisher of political men and measures—and stitution, have done more to retard the emen- just dues. A Changed name has enabled plausible reasons have been assigned by the mous in impressing upon its party that it Jefferson, that the granite monument has been down and defeated political aspir bank managers and their friends in order to retard the emen- just dues. A Changed name has enabled plausible reasons have been assigned by the mous in impressing upon its party that it Jefferson, that the granite monument has been down and defeated political aspir bank managers and their friends in order to retard the emenrants to rally the scattered squadrons of their tion of their course upon this subject; but ought to have nothing to do with it. Some the marble slab over the grave of his wife, old friends, and enlist new recruits by de- they are not satisfactory, and we are relust was a political tour, and that the Opposition mutilated and broken by visitois, Indeed the more we reflect on this subject old friends, and enlist new recruits by de- they are not satisfactory, and we are reluct- of the more moderate among them indeed has also been broken. We trust that the ceiving the ignorant and unwary; flattering antly compelled to the opinion that it is recommended that no insult should be offer. good people of the United States who travel and amusing the careless straggler, appealing for the interes; of a few, and the many and amusing the careless straggler, appealing for the interes: of a few, and the many ed to the Chief Magistrate, that he be treated here for the purpose of seeing the place to the prejudices, magnifying the injuries, must succumb. with forbearance and the cool decency of where the body of this immortal man is laid, where the body of this immortal man is laid, where the body of this immortal man is laid, capacity essential to the welfare of com. in that determination if possible to connect appear again in the field; join battle in the nay, thousands, of democrats to doubt the and by those who witnessed it without green contest for power, with a more formidable propriety of Gov. McNutt's course in relation spectacles, could be compared to nothing but in its results than foreign in what has deen done and can be done, by "a bank and people, and prevent the immediate joint concern—it was the whole city devoting a day of enthusiasm joy, show and pro-orable name, (which has never yet been hesitation in expressing our belief of his eu- dity which the Whigs have woven around and the gambling away of that franchise which ing and manufacturing a currency for a peo. shamed though often blamed,) that has been tire competence and ability. True, there the visit of the President to New York. Afple who even doubt its value and constitue transmitted a pure and invalue hie legacy from are many members of our party whom we ter having loudly proclaimed that it was a has been as hot as cayenne now his cool of the President to New York. Af-the key hole -- all this and more of the dence, some Southern Whig prints wen gaged in proving that the Suh. oppose him. One is sometimes tends fro sta

From the Montreal Herald. "The Brock ville Statesman says that me other active preparations which are nonking to place every part of British & America in the most ample state of dele are the following:

Bermuda is to be strongly fortified to well in jockeying ours by swaggering a submit no farther to foreigners. The tional honor would be sorely wounded even a temporary successful invasion of a important part of Upper or Lower Camb and the blame would be thrown on the mi istry for not having caused the frontier to placed in a proper posture for defence. La events have shown that it is almost unpr tected at present, and that the sooner advantage is taken of the knowledge so acquired,

The warlike preparations announced the Brockville Statesman, will occupy some considerable time-two or three years t "great war" is to be so long deferred. In the mean time, perhaps, the intentions of the

DESECRATION OF THE MONUMENT OF ME. will desist from thus desecrating his monument. We consider it worse than sacrilege to be breaking in peices a monument erected over the ashes of one of the most illustrous of Statesmen and Patriots. We never should dare exhibit as a relic, even the smallest particle of stone which we had been guilty breaking from the monument of the Suga Monticello. More than one thousand ship gers annually visit the grave of Mr. Jeffet son-we hope for the future that all visiton

The editors of the United Stales can put a stop to this evil, by cautioning the pablie against it, and we trust they will do so. Charlottespille Reput

The weather for the last two or three wiek